

58th Annual Diocesan Convention

Diocesan Board Nominee Lay Order | Heidi White

Heidi holds a B.A. and M.Ed. from Boston College and a Certificate of Non-Profit Leadership from the University of Delaware. She brings more than 30 years of nonprofit leadership experience, including 20 years as Executive Director of a small nonprofit and 9 years as a Parish Administrator. She understands nonprofit and church governance, legal and fiduciary responsibilities, and the importance of collaborative leadership focused on mission and sustainability.

After being received into the Episcopal Church in 2008, Heidi and her family worshiped at Trinity, Elkton in the Diocese of Easton before moving to Central Florida. They now call Christ the King, Lakeland home.

Heidi has served the Episcopal Church as a Diocesan Board member, Deputy to General Convention, Senior Warden, Vestry member, convention delegate, diocesan committee member, and lay Eucharistic minister. She has also served as Parish Administrator for three small churches, including Holy Cross, Winter Haven.

Heidi would be honored to serve the Diocese of Central Florida and support Bishop Holcomb in its next phase of ministry.
