58th Annual Diocesan Convention

Diocesan Board Nominee
Lay Order | Irais Murphy

Irais Murphy's faith journey in the Episcopal Church began over 30 years ago in Puerto Rico. For the past 13 years, she has actively served in the Episcopal Diocese of Central Florida. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice and a Master's Degree in Labor Relations and Human Resources, bringing valuable skills in administration, conflict resolution, and organizational governance. Her church involvement includes serving as a catechist, supporting local food bank outreach, and helping establish new Latino congregations.

Irais currently serves as Coordinator of the Latino Ministries Commission, a member of the Commission on Ministry, and Secretary to the Cursillo Latino Secretariat. She also teaches Safe Church workshops in Spanish. Having previously served a three-year term on the Diocesan Board, she brings experience in diocesan canons, strategic oversight, and financial stewardship.

Irais seeks election to the Diocesan Board to serve our entire diocesan family and to preserve unity across all ethnicities, cultures, and backgrounds. She is dedicated to ensuring that every community has a meaningful voice at the table, reflecting the deep respect and inclusion our diocese values. She humbly asks for your vote and prayers as we work together to strengthen our parishes, steward our resources wisely, and faithfully fulfill God's mission in Central Florida.

1017 E. Robinson St., Orlando, FL 32801
407-423-3567 | CFDiocese.org