58th Annual Diocesan Convention

Diocesan Board Nominee
Clerical Order | The Rev. Kevin Bartle

Kevin has a lifelong connection to the Diocese of Central Florida. Born and raised in the diocese, he comes from a family devoted to ordained ministry, with his father and stepmother serving as priests and his grandfather as a deacon. When Kevin discerned his own call to the priesthood, he committed to serving the diocese he has always called home.

Following his ordination in 2018, Kevin served as Rector of St. Mary of the Angels, Orlando for eight years before accepting a call to become Rector of the Church of the Messiah, Winter Garden in October 2026.

Kevin holds a Master of Divinity from Asbury Theological Seminary and completed Anglican studies at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. His diocesan leadership includes service on the Transition Committee for the most recent episcopal search and a previous term on the Diocesan Board. He currently serves as Diocesan Youth Ministry Coordinator, providing vision and support for youth ministry throughout the diocese.

Kevin's roots in the diocese, experience in parish leadership, and commitment to diocesan service equip him to contribute meaningfully to the work of the Diocesan Board and the continued flourishing of the Diocese of Central Florida.
